Distributor Acceptance of Responsibility

By signing this form, you accept all responsibility for the machine we will ship to your customer. We will not charge for normal wear & tear; however, any accessories that are not returned with the machine will be charged to your company. Also, any damage to the machine not expected in day-to-day operations will be billed to your company. All demo machines will be shipped with a checklist for the customer to use to verify that all accessories are included with the machine at time of receipt. Once faxed, we will then complete the bottom of this form to provide you with the ship date and serial number of the machine your customer will receive.
